

What can I do with a Degree in Religious Studies? - FACT SHEET

Work in:

- publishing
- government
- banking
- administration
- college student services
- journalism
- fund-raising
- technology
- education
- advertising
- public relations
- personnel

Work for:

- social service agencies
- non-profit agencies
- Foreign Service
- civil service
- local/national religious ministry
- State Department
- college or university
- museum
- hospice
- global organizations / businesses
- news organizations
- U.S. Military

Religious Studies: what you do is up to you!

Religious Studies Academic Advising
ECA 365 (480) 965-0642
patricia.power@asu.edu

For more information visit our website and check out our new Career Guide
http://asu.edu/clas/religious_studies/undergraduate/future.html

THE SHORT ANSWER IS: MORE THAN YOU MIGHT THINK

Here are a few ideas ...

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Rituals, ideas, symbols, myths, politics, values, poetry, film, art . . . anything from archaeology to Zen, from the Virgin Mary to Martin Luther King, Jr., from the ancestral dead to the Grateful Dead.

WHAT WILL I BE ABLE TO DO IF I MAJOR IN RELIGIOUS STUDIES?

You will be able to understand and work with all kinds of people around the globe or at home. You can specialize in the Middle East, East Asia, Southeast Asia, Latin America; study the Borderlands, Islamic Culture and Literature, Religion and Justice, Religion and Psychology, Religion & Conflict, Peace Studies. The possibilities are as broad as the issues on the front page of your favorite newspaper. Above all, our department's commitment to the acquisition and development of critical thinking and writing skills insures that you will have the best opportunity possible to develop these valuable abilities and be prepared to apply them in a variety of jobs and life situations.

A BA IN RELIGIOUS STUDIES IS EXCELLENT PREPARATION FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL

with an advanced degree, be a:

- lawyer
- social worker
- university professor
- historian
- clergy member / chaplain
- archaeologist
- counselor
- college educator / administrator
- librarian

ASU
ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY