

Undergraduate Certificate Program in Classical Studies

PLEASE NOTE: The requirements for the Classical Studies certificate have been modified. The thesis option has been eliminated. Those students who enroll in the program in or after fall 2004 will follow the revised guidelines. Those who enrolled in the program before fall 2004 will have the option to follow the previous guidelines or to adopt these modified requirements.

Requirements: Students admitted to a degree program in any field are eligible for the Classical Studies certificate program. Students are responsible for fulfilling the following minimum requirements to earn the Classical Studies certificate:

- I) One semester of advanced language (ancient Greek or Latin).
- II) Two semesters of course work in Classical Studies (200-300 level)
- III) Two semesters of course work in Classical Studies (300 + level)
- IV) Students must maintain a 2.0 or higher GPA in all course work.

I) Ancient Language Requirement

1. Students must reach an advanced level in either ancient Greek or Latin.
2. For ancient Greek: students must take GRK 101, 201, 301 and 302 (or equivalent) and then repeat GRK 301 or 302 (which may be repeated for credit).
3. For Latin: students must take LAT 101, 102, 201 and 202 (or equivalent) and then take LAT 421 or 422 (which may be repeated for credit).
4. Combining languages cannot complete this requirement (for instance, 3 semesters of ancient Greek and 2 semesters of Latin).

II) Course work in Classical Studies (200-300 level)

Approved courses include the following:

- ARS 402 Art of Ancient Egypt
- ARS 404 Greek Art
- ARS 406 Roman Art
- ARS Special Topics Courses
- ASB 222 Buried Cities and Lost Tribes
- ENG 303 Classical Backgrounds of English Literature
- HST 347 Ancient Greece
- HST 348 Rome

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

SILC

PO Box 870202 Tempe, AZ 85287-0202

(480) 965-6281 Fax: (480) 965-0135

silc@asu.edu

<http://www.asu.edu/silc/>

- LAT/ENG 494/598 Latin Paleography
- HPS 322 History of Science
- GRK/LAT 294: Classical Mythology
- GRK/LAT Special Topics Courses
- PHI 301 History of Ancient Philosophy
- POS 340 History of Political Philosophy

Additional courses may be approved by the directors of the certificate program.

III) Course work in Classical Studies (300+ level)

1. Students may choose 300+ level classes from list of courses above.
2. Students may use additional language courses at or above the 300 level to meet this requirement.
3. Additional courses may be approved by the directors.
4. Courses submitted for approval must be primarily about Classical Studies.
5. Students must submit detailed syllabi and a specific list of assignments (author, title and number of pages assigned for each class; length of papers; specific course activities, etc.) for courses submitted for approval.
6. Courses submitted for approval must be taught by an instructor with an advanced degree in Classics or a related field.

IV) Admissions procedures:

Applications should be submitted by email to Almira Poudrier.

The application will consist of:

- Name
- Address
- Phone number
- e-mail address (NOTE: MUST BE AN ASU E-MAIL ADDRESS)
- Student ID number
- Major or intended major
- College/Year
- Emphasis (Greek or Latin)
- Anticipated graduation date
- Advisor

For more information:

Dr. Almira F. Poudrier
 Lecturer in Latin
 Director, Classics Program
 School of International Languages and Cultures

P.O. Box 870202
Tempe, AZ 85287-0202
almira.poudrier@asu.edu
main office: 480-965-6281
office: 480-965-1754
fax: 480-965-0135