KEMBA SMITH

Kemba Smith recounts her story of triumph in the face of adversity. A story of blacks and whites, rich and poor joining forces to demand justice. A story of the current federal drug laws and what needs to be done to correct them... look no further. Ms. Smith's traumatic real life experience, forces today's students to listen in hopes that they will recognize that there are consequences to their life choices.

Ms. Smith Focuses on:

- Personal Testimony
- Mandatory Minimum Drug Laws
- Collateral Consequences
- Advocacy & Social Responsibility
- The Power of Prayer & Faith
