Hwa Rang Do® Tae Soo Do® Club @ ASU

Affiliated with HwaRangDo® Phoenix Academy and the World HwaRangDo® Association

Our Arizona State University (ASU) club is a branch of the Hwa Rang Do Phoenix Academies. If you are interested, come by to our class. We meet at SMALL GYM A (Upstairs at the Student Recreation Center [SRC]) at 8 p.m., every Tuesday and Thursday. Anyone with previous or no martial art experience can join our Hwa Rang Do Phoenix-ASU family. For more information about the Phoenix Hwarangdo Academies run by Master Tim Elliot, please visit phxhwarangdo.com online. To check out our website, please visit asu.edu/clubs/hrd.

The martial art of Tae Soo Do was created as the undergraduate program of Hwa Rang Do®. Since the Hwa Rang Do curriculum is very advanced and complicated, it was often difficult for an individual without previous martial skill training to progress through Hwa Rang Do. The Tae Soo Do syllabus is designed to build a foundation of physical skills as well as proper attitude for the non-experienced practitioner. This program helps the student understand the fundamentals, basic mechanics, and philosophies inherent in Hwa Rang Do.
