

December 9, 2004

Research Contact:
Stephanie Hiatt
480.965.4799

ASU's Center for Nonprofit Leadership & Management Releases 2004 Nonprofit Compensation & Benefits Report

The Center for Nonprofit Leadership & Management at ASU has released the 2004 Nonprofit Compensation & Benefits Report. To view the highlight publication, Nonprofit Abridged, please visit the CNLM site at <http://nonprofit.asu.edu> . This report is the second publication in the nonprofit compensation research series conducted by the Center. The ASU Center researches and reports on nonprofit compensation and benefits every three years; the study was last published in 2001. The purpose is to help nonprofit organizations make informed decisions regarding hiring, salaries, and benefits by providing accurate and regionally-specific information.

The price of the full report for nonprofit organizations is $100 (plus shipping and tax); the price for other organizations and individuals is $250 (plus shipping and tax).

The Center for Nonprofit Leadership & Management provides knowledge and tools for nonprofit effectiveness. To find out more about the Center please visit <http://nonprofit.asu.edu> .

###