

LEARNER CENTERED LEADERSHIP

Invites you to the Fall 2006 Institute
Trust Matters: Leadership for Successful Schools

Saturday, September 9, 2006

8 AM to 12 PM

at

Pointe Hilton at Squaw Peak Resort

7677 North 16th Street, Phoenix, AZ

Guest Speaker: Megan Tschannen-Moran

Megan Tschannen-Moran is an Assistant Professor in Educational Policy, Planning and Leadership in the School of Education at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, VA. Her research interests focus on the social psychology of schools, including self-efficacy beliefs, trust and school climate. Her articles have appeared in the Review of Educational Research, Educational Administration Quarterly, Teachers College Record, the Journal of Educational Administration, and the Journal of School Leadership. Her newest publication is Trust Matters: Leadership for Successful Schools

RSVP to your District Liaison or

Barbara Erickson at 480-965-3267

Barbara.erickson@asu.edu