

Aetna Life EssentialsSM gives you more of what you want

Aetna is pleased to announce a new program, Aetna Life EssentialsSM, now available to policyholders giving access to a number of new value-added programs and services.

Aetna Life Essentials offers access to programs for the different stages of your life:

- Living services – services you can take advantage of today, while you're living
- End-of-life services – services for you and your caregivers during the end-of-life period
- Beneficiary services – services for those you care about the most

These programs are grouped into four categories:

- Financial – Financial payout, financial counseling and advice.
- Legal – Living wills, health care directives, durable financial power of attorney forms, basic will preparation and identity theft action kit.
- Emotional – End-of-life information, bereavement counseling for caregivers and immediate family members.
- Physical – Discount wellness programs, medical care advocacy services.
