Veteran Status Definitions

This employer is a Government contractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

- A "disabled veteran" is one of the following:
  - a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs;
  - or a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.
- A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service.
- An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.
- An "Armed Forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA - the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

Reasonable Accommodation Notice

If you are a disabled veteran it would assist us if you tell us whether there are accommodations we could make that would enable you to perform the essential functions of the job, including special equipment, changes in the physical layout of the job, changes in the way the job is customarily performed, provision of personal assistance services or other accommodations. This information will assist us in making reasonable accommodations for your disability.

Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information provided will be used only in ways that are not inconsistent with the Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended.

The information you submit will be kept confidential, except that (i) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of disabled veterans, and regarding necessary accommodations; (ii) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, when and to the extent appropriate, if you have a condition that might require emergency treatment; and (iii) Government officials engaged in enforcing laws administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, or enforcing the Americans with Disabilities Act, may be informed.

F. Tax Withholding on Student Wages

Wages paid to a student employee through the payroll system are subject to the following withholding taxes: Federal Income Tax, State Income Tax and FICA (Social Security and Medicare).

The withholding of federal and state taxes is dependent upon the student’s biweekly gross income and how the student files their W-4 and A-4 forms. A student may seek advice from the IRS regarding how to file their W-4 Form or advice from the ADOR regarding how to file their A-4 Form.

IRS toll-free number | 1-800-829-1040
ADOR toll-free number | 1-800-843-7196

The number of credit hours a student is enrolled for at the end of the drop/add period determines whether or not FICA tax is withheld. To be exempt from FICA tax a student must be enrolled at least half time:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fall or Spring Term (comprised of Session A, Session B or Session C)</th>
<th>Undergraduate Graduate Graduate Assistant*</th>
<th>six or more hours five or more hours three or more hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Summer Term (Comprised of Session A, Session B or Session C)</td>
<td>Undergraduate Graduate Graduate Assistant*</td>
<td>two or more hours two or more hours one or more hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If break between classes is more than five weeks, FICA exemption does not apply.

* For enrollment verification purposes, Graduate Assistant is a generic term used in the table above that includes Graduate Assistants, Graduate Research Assistants/Associates and Graduate Teaching Assistants/Associates.

F1 and J1 Status Non-resident Alien Student Exemption

Non-resident Alien student admitted to the United States on an F1 or J1 visa remain in a FICA tax exempt status regardless of the credit hour enrollment requirement until they have passed the substantial presence test (e.g., been present in the U.S. more than four calendar years.)

New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

General Information
When key parts of the health care reform law (the Affordable Care Act or ACA) take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: through the health insurance marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new marketplaces and employment based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the health insurance marketplace?
The marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You can enroll for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace during an enrollment period that begins in October 2013. Coverage can begin as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I save money on my health insurance premiums in the marketplace?
If you’re eligible for coverage through your employer, you most likely will not be eligible for the subsidy through the marketplace because the State of Arizona Benefit Options Plan meets ACA requirements for minimum value and employee-only coverage is intended to be affordable. However, if you’re not eligible for medical coverage through your employer or if the lowest cost plan from the State of Arizona Benefit Options Plan that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, you may be eligible for a subsidy that lowers your monthly premium for coverage purchased.

Please note: The marketplace will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a subsidy.

Alternatively, you may qualify for Medicaid depending on your household income. Please visit www.HealthCare.gov for more information.

How will enrolling in the marketplace affect health coverage through my employer?
If you purchase a health plan through the marketplace instead of enrolling for health coverage offered by your employer, you will lose any employer contribution to the State of Arizona Benefit Options Plan. Future enrollment in the State of Arizona Benefit Options Plan will be limited to open enrollment (which typically happens in the fall).

How can I get more information?
For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact Office of Human Resources Employee Service Center contact information included in employer information chart.

The marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the marketplace and its cost. Visit http://www.HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and a Health Insurance Marketplace in
New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage
Options and Your Health Coverage

Information about health coverage offered by your employer
If you decide to complete an application for coverage in the marketplace, you will be asked to provide the information included in the chart below. This employer information is numbered to correspond to the marketplace application.

If you decide to shop for coverage in the marketplace, http://www.HealthCare.gov will guide you through the process. The employer information you can enter when you visit www.HealthCare.gov will help you determine if you can get a subsidy (in the form of a tax credit) to lower your monthly premiums for coverage purchased through the marketplace.

Here is some basic information about health coverage offered by this employer:

- As your employer, we offer a health plan to some employees and dependents. Eligible employees and dependents are:

  Defined in the EPO, PPO and HSA plan descriptions (Article 2 Eligibility and Participation) posted on the Benefit Options website www.benefitoptions.az.gov

- This coverage provided meets the minimum value standard, and the cost of this coverage is intended to be affordable.

The primary focus for any ASU student is their education. ASU recognizes that some students may need to supplement their income with on-campus work in order to help fund their education. To ensure that student’s education and training are not compromised by commitments to additional employment, the following ASU employment guidelines must be followed:

For graduate students
- Students holding assistantships or graduate intern appointments during the academic year may work a maximum of 0.50 FTE. During the summer, these students may work a maximum of 1.00 FTE.
- Students holding hourly student worker positions during the academic year may work a maximum of 25 hours per week. During the summer, these students may work up to a maximum of 40 hours per week.
- All positions combined (including stipend-paid positions) cannot exceed 0.625 FTE or 25 hours per week for the first 12 months of employment or from October to October in subsequent years of employment.

Some important areas to think about
- If you average more than 0.625 FTE or 25 hours per week, your employment will be terminated from all ASU jobs.
- If you are terminated for exceeding the 0.625 FTE / 25-hour weekly maximum, you are not eligible for rehire at ASU in a student worker, faculty associate or graduate student position for at least 26 weeks.

For undergraduate students
- Student employees are limited to a rolling average of 25 hours per week per year.
- Students can work up to 100 percent in the summer, provided they do not exceed an average of 25 hours per week for the first 12 months of ASU employment or from October to October in subsequent years of employment.
- This 25-hour average maximum applies to the combined total of all jobs, including hours associated with stipend-based compensation.

Some important areas to think about
- If you average more than 25 hours per week, you will be terminated from all ASU jobs.
- If you are terminated for exceeding the 25-hour weekly maximum, you are not eligible for rehire at ASU in an undergraduate or graduate student position for at least 26 weeks.

Please help us minimize any disruption to your education, employment experience and, if applicable, your graduate assistantship or graduate intern appointment by being mindful of your total ASU employment hours.

If you have any questions regarding your hours, please contact your supervisor or the hiring manager for your department.
