

pering, note writing, or otherwise, are forbidden.

In The Corridors.

Students are required to pass to and from their recitations, or otherwise through the corridors, without loitering or communication.

In the Recitation Rooms.

Students are required to abstain from all communication during recitations, except by permission of the teacher in charge.

In Their Rooms.

Students are requested to observe study hours between the hours of seven and nine P.M.