President of Class of 1921⁹ talks.

Seniors who are about to depart, we are impressed with the responsibility that now rests upon our shoulders. We pledge renewed allegiance to our school and to its traditions. As long as we have life and breath it will be our endeavor to work for and support Tempe Normal School. We will do everything that is within our power to upbuild and support an institution that stands for the best womanhood and manhood of the nation. We too cast from us the blazing hatchet of class contention. In its flame you see the symbol of the effort which shall be ours. It shall always be our endeavor to make our school one of which the Alumni shall ever be proud.

Now with their lighted lanterns, the Class of 1920 will form a shining '20 as a token of farewell. Then, Class of '21, to you we will transfer our lanterns. Receive them and form the figures '21, symbolizing the Class that is now to take into its hands the dignity and honor of our Alma Mater. May the lights which we give you brighten your way and make the path of knowledge more clearly visible. Farewell, Juniors, Farewell!

(When both classes have formed their figures and sung their songs, the Class of 1921, with their new lights, file westward, down the Butte toward the mill. The Class of 1920, without lights, return by the way they came up. This closes the ceremony.)
