

AGUIRRE, CONRADO

01

AGUIRRE, CONRADO

Born at Aldame, Chihuahua, Mexico, November 26, 1836
Son of Pedro and Maria del Refugio (Mendoza) Aguirre.
Married Carmen Elias of Magdalena, Sonora (no children).
Came to Las Cruces, New Mexico, with his parents, 1850;
assisted his brothers, Epifanio and Pedro in freighting across the plains to the Missouri River; first came to Arizona with them, 1864; they were operating a stage line between Tucson and Altar, Sonora, when he and his brother Epifanio and three others were attacked by Indians at Sasabi Flat on January 20, 1870 and he was the sole survivor.
Died of a heart attack at Nogales, Pima County, A.T.,
August 3, 1889.

Aug. 3

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

~~The Arizona~~ Tucson, January 29, 1870, p. 137, Col. 2, Col. 2.
~~Aguirre, Y. P.~~ - Baptismal records furnished to A. P. H. G. [unclear]
~~History of the Aguirre family~~ (6 page manuscript)

AGUIRRE, CONRADO

See file of Pedro Aguibre.

Los Angeles Star, 2/ 25/ 60, 3:1

Impressed into the ranks of the Mexican army.