Mentioned by John H. Marion in 1891 as one who came to Arizona 1863-65; listed, U.S. Census, 1880, at Bradshaw City, Yavapai County, A.T., age 46, born in South Carolina, occupation - Miner; at the time of his death the Prescott Journal-Miner stated:

John W. Long, who has lived in this section for the past forty-three years, died at the Mercy hospital on Monday evening last. He was a miner by occupation, and during his long residence here made many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

The following obituary was printed in the Prescott Courier:

John W. Long, aged 78 years, a native of Missouri, died at the Mercy Hospital the evening of December 3, 1905. He had lived in this section since 1862; was a miner by occupation, and was a member of the last Democratic convention. He has resided near Goodwin for many years and was brought in from that point a few days ago. He was an excellent man in all respects and a true friend.

Two days later the following item appeared in the Courier:

An old timer yesterday, in talking about the late John W. Long, said he knew Long Well in the early days, when he lived near Tucson, owned a fine ranch and was well to do, and was quite a prominent man, having run for Congress against Chas. D. Poston.

Died at Prescott, Yavapai County, A.T., December 3, 1905; buried Citizens Cemetery, Prescott, his estate consisted of $1,177.00 in cash and personal effects valued at $75.00.
