

WEBB, JOHN S.

1

WEBB, JOHN S. , born in Lincoln County, Maine, 1824; probably a son of Luther and Eliza Webb, who resided in that County; enrolled October 13, and mustered in October 14, 1864, at Sacramento, California, to serve 3 years as Private, Captain James P. Olmstead's Company A, 7th California Infantry; occupation when enlisted, Brass Founder; stationed at Camp Union, near Sacramento, until November when he went with the Company to the Presidio of San Francisco and remained there until March, 1865; went by sea to San Pedro, California, and from there marched to Fort Yuma; stationed there until September when he marched with the company via Maricopa Wells to Fort McDowell; died of scurvey in the hospital at Fort McDowell, A.T., February 25, 1866, aged 45.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Orton, R.H. - Records of California Men in the War of the Rebellion, Sacramento, 1890, pp. 770, 883.

The Adjutant General of the Army - Military service records.