2. Starting Point

2.1 Getting Started

When you need to do research for a library assignment you might wonder…

- Where can I find great resources for my paper topic?
- What are library guides and where can I find them?
- Can I get library help online?

2.2 OneSearch Intro

The Library One Search option is a great place to begin searching for information on most topics.

It’s like Google but for library resources!

You’ll find this search box on the Library Home Page and the MyASU Library page.

2.3 Library One Search Video

This short video describes Library One Search and the benefits of using it for your research!
3. Search Box Explained

3.1 SearchBox Exploration

Let’s learn more about One Search…

Use the arrows pointed at the search box to discover how each search type will help you when doing library research!

After viewing each tab, click NEXT to continue...

3.2 Searchbox interaction

It’s time to test your knowledge about what can be found using the options in the search box!

Click NEXT to practice determining which option is used to find each type of information!

4. Library Guides

4.1 Best resources = good grades

Good Job!

Understanding the fundamentals of the library search box will help you save time and find good resources for your class assignments.

4.2 Library Guides

Finally, the answer to life, the universe and everything…

Yep! Our library guides include librarian suggested resources for nearly every field of study offered at ASU, plus other kinds of guidance.

For instance, do you need to know how to cite resources in your paper?
Would you like to know what library services are available for online students?

To fill in important pieces of your research puzzle, there is a library guide for you!

4.3 Finding Library Guides

You already know about finding library guides using the drop down menu on the search box.

On the library home page, you also have the option of linking straight to our Library Guides page from HELP or from QUICK LINKS.

4.4 Library Guides Menus

The Library Guides web page offers several options for getting to the right guide for you.

When browsing the all guides page, you can use the Display menu to view them alphabetically, by popularity or by those developed most recently!

4.5 Library Guides by Type

Library Guides can be browsed by type too.

Most of our guides are designed to either support research in a subject area or for a specific course.
Some guides are how to guides, to help you with aspects of your projects such as citing sources or using Refworks.

Click on each type of group to see a sample guide.

4.6 Library Guides by Subject

You can also browse library guides by general subject!
