

exhibition / 'latin american architecture territories of the revolution' opening / march 21, 6:15 pm., through april 8, 2005 caed gallery of design, south architecture building school of architecture and landscape architecture / latin-american initiative college of architecture and environmental design / arizona state university College of Architecture and Environmental Design School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture

PO Box 871605
Tempe, AZ 85287-1605

exhibition /
'latin american architecture
territories of the revolution'

radical architectural works from the 1930's through the 1980's in latin america, by o'gorman, barragan, candela, porro, salmona, le corbusier, costa, niemeyer, reidy, marx, bo bardi, artigas, da rocha, correa, dieste, williams, testa.

featured in critical papers, drawings, photographs and models produced by the students of asst. prof. claudio vekstein's seminar class.

claudio vekstein (1965, buenos aires) is professor at asu/caed/sala since 2002, he studied architecture in argentina (1989), earned his master's in germany (1993), has run his practice in argentina since 1996.

opening march 21, 6:15 pm, through april 8 2005, caed gallery of design, south architecture building

