Amnesia II

We have forgotten
how to remember

so much

so many stars
so many moons
so many winds
so many waves
so many fish
so many birds
so many flowers
so many leaves
so many trees
so many roots
so many ancestors
so many gods
so many relatives
so many relations
so many stories
so many songs
so many words
so many ways

We have forgotten

so much

Amnesia III

I remember now
how
I forgot
how
much it hurt
when you left me
It was easy
I just told the story over and over and over and over and over and over and over and over
until the story became mine but not me
and that's how I forget now to remember
how
I just tell the story
until the story becomes mine but not
me
and I've remembered now
how
to forget
how
