Assaults

Hassayampa Campus Residents

Over the past couple of weeks, the ASU Police Department has investigated a few assaults around Hassayampa Academic Village.

All of the assaults have occurred in the early morning hours, between Midnight and 2:30 a.m. They normally begin with the suspects verbally harassing a female. When a male subject comes to investigate or to the aid of the female, the suspects physically assault the subject. A couple of the victims have required medical treatment.

If you witness a group of males harassing a female near Hassayampa or you feel personally threatened, please call 911 immediately or use a nearby emergency call box.

If you have any information concerning these incidents, please call the ASU Police Department at
