

The Arizona Project Women, Justice and Law

Renowned Playwright Anna Deavere Smith will present a new piece inspired by Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. Smith's one-woman show—inspired by interviews with activists, politicians and prison inmates—have set her apart as one of theater's most electrifying performers, one who's not afraid to get political.

The performance called The Arizona Project – Women Justice and Law was developed through F.A.R. @ ASU (Future Arts Research).
