MISSION STATEMENT

Native American Business Organization's focus is to provide assistance to the members to excel academically, develop professional business etiquette skills, and promote cultural and social awareness to the ASU community and its affiliates.

NABO has always had 3 arching mission:

- Academic Excellence
- Professional Development
- Cultural & Social Awareness

NABO HISTORY

Founded in 1990, The Native American Business Organization provides a comfortable setting for networking & social interaction with other organizations on campus, as well as throughout the community. This organization consists of unique individuals with similar goals and ambitions to assist students of ASU. All majors are welcome to join.

Objectives & Ambitions

What to expected as a NABO member

- Numerous networking opportunities with Native American business owners
- Improving your leadership skills through NABO community projects
- Possibilities of entrepreneurial ventures within the Native American communities

2009-2010 NABO Goals

- To educate its members for developing entrepreneurial skills to establish, promote, and succeed in business on the reservations.
- To promote education and improve attrition in K-12 schools through connecting and participating in activities and projects
- To provide community support to worthy causes that help promote education and Native American businesses
- To network with the Alumni Association as an important bridge and support in promoting NABO's goals and objectives.
