
Message from the ISO: End of SEMESTER REMINDERS for Spring 2009

Greetings from the ISO!

As we approach the end of the Spring 2009 Semester, the staff of the International Student Office wishes you success in your finals and other academic endeavors.

- For additional resources to support your success as you prepare for finals, go to the ASU Learning Support Services website <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/lss>
- All ASU students are welcome to attend the FREE FINALS BREAKFAST on the evening of Reading Day, May 6th, Wednesday, 9:00 pm - 11:00 pm to refresh and refuel before finals. Participating locations: Manzy Square, Hassayampa Dining Center, Pitchforks in the MU. For more details, visit <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/mu/finalsbreakfast>

Below are important reminders:

- To ensure you receive updated immigration information from the ISO please check your ASU email account periodically. You can review the email messages on this web page: <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/iso/updates.htm>
- The ISO will be open during the summer vacation. The processing time at the ISO for any document/form/signature request is 10-14 full working days. Other requests may take more time. If you send an email to ISOadvisor@asu.edu you will get a response between 2-3 days. Please plan accordingly.
- Practice safety this summer; the ASU Police Crime Prevention Section offers general safety tips on their website: http://uabf.asu.edu/police_safetytips

We appreciate your attendance at Arizona State University and consider it a privilege to have worked with you. If you are completing your studies and moving on from ASU, we congratulate you on your achievements. To the continuing students, congratulations for the successful completion of this semester – we look forward to your return!

Please be cautious in your travels and have a safe and enjoyable summer break!
