Baltimore Ecosystem Study:
Human Settlements as Ecosystems, Metropolitan Baltimore from 1797-2100

Contact: Christopher.Boone@asu.edu

List of Publications

“Environmental Inequity as Process.” Invited Colloquium, Department of Geography and Planning, University of Akron (April 2002).

“Creating a GIS for Historical Census Boundaries and Data: Some Methodological Issues.” Presentation at the Biocomplexity Workshop on Census, GIS, and Historical Methods, Tempe, Arizona (September 2001).

“Methods for Understanding Ecological Change in the Baltimore Metropolitan Region: Creating an Historical GIS.” Presentation at the International Conference of Historical Geographers 11th Meeting, Quebec City, Canada (August 2001).

“Baltimore and the Crisis of Environmental Equity Research.” Invited Colloquium, Department of Geography and Environmental Engineering, Johns Hopkins University (September 2000).

“Census Data as a Core Demographic, Social, and Economic Dataset for Long Term Ecological and Social Research.” [with M. Grove and M. Ratcliffe]. All Scientists Meeting of the Long Term Ecological Research Network, Snowbird, Utah (August 2000).

