

Compost

What goes in the green bin:

Compostable paper

No coated paper cups or plates

- Examples:
- 100% paper bag
 - 100% paper plates
 - muffin wrappers
 - napkins
 - paper coffee filters and coffee grounds
 - tea bag | staple removed
 - wooden chopsticks
 - wooden toothpicks
 - wooden stir sticks

Grain

- Examples:
- bakery foods
 - bread
 - cake
 - noodles
 - pasta
 - pizza
 - rice

Produce

- Examples:
- all fruits | including pits and seeds
 - all vegetables | including pits and seeds
 - flowers
 - fried foods | chips and french fries
 - legumes
 - peels and rinds

Protein

- Examples:
- beans
 - beef
 - bones and shells
 - chicken
 - dairy
 - egg shells
 - fish
 - pork
 - tofu

Live a Zero Waste lifestyle. Collect organic waste to create nutrient-rich fertilizer.

Learn more about ASU Zero Waste zerowaste.asu.edu

For service or questions recycle-q@asu.edu

ZeroWasteASU

@ZeroWasteASU

zerowasteasu

When in doubt leave it out.

NO: Bioplastics, even if it says BPI, ASTM compliant or compostable; gum, recyclables, Styrofoam®, or tissues.

