Award Criteria

Award applications are evaluated using the following criteria. Scores are determined by rating the degree to which the program or program—as it is described in the award application—meets the criteria in each category listed below. Your narrative should clearly and convincingly describe the development of the sustainability project/program, its implementation, and the beneficial outcomes that occurred as a result. The following organizational headings should be used: development, implementation, and impact or outcomes.

Sustainability Criteria
Development, 35% <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Identify the specific sustainability issues or opportunity that was addressed, and describe the condition/situation/need that existed prior to involvement by the team. ▪ Outline the goals and objectives of the project/program. (See the appendix for tips on SMART objectives.). ▪ Describe the sustainability principle, project, program, service or solution, and explain how and why it was developed.
Implementation, 30% <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Describe how and when the program/improvement/solution was implemented. ▪ Identify the internal and/or external partners who helped develop and/or implement the solution, and explain the project/program’s relevance to them. ▪ Describe how the project/program used/uses the resources of ASU to develop and implement practical solutions to environmental, economic and/or societal challenges of sustainability.
Impact, outcomes, measured results, 35% <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Explain how program success was measured. This can be done using a wide array of measures either quantitative, qualitative, or both. Examples might include, but are not limited to: surveys, interviews, artifacts, pre/post tests, narrative reflections, etc. Explain how you gathered the evidence, how it was analyzed, and how it demonstrates a lasting positive impact pertaining to sustainability. See the Appendix for tips on SMART metrics. ▪ Describe the impact, scope, and success of the project or program. Provide supportive evidence that demonstrates the project/program’s positive impact on one or more of the stated sustainability actions or goals. ▪ Explain how this project aligns with ASU’s sustainability initiative and describe how it provides a direct benefit to ASU. Inspired research, teaching and learning, active engagement or campus operations. ▪ Indicate if the positive results will be continued. Will the partnerships/relationships be maintained? Explain the potential for this program/project to expand to widespread application to other parts of ASU or to other organizations.
