

as may best enable the corps of teachers to work to advantage.

----- During the past year, students from a distance have been able to secure board and rooms, at reasonable rates, in the best private families, and accommodations of this kind will, no doubt, be ample in the future.
We regard this distribution of students among the families in the vicinity of the school as the very best that could be made.

The general deportment of the students has been worthy of praise and their application to their work, such as will compare favorably with that of students in the older communities.

Very respectfully submitted.

Dayton A. Reed, Principal