

Directions for the Guidance of Students of the Normal School of Arizona, in Matters of Conduct.

General.

Students are required to be punctual and regular in their attendance at the sessions of the school.

Absence from any required exercise must be accounted for before a student will be permitted to enter a succeeding recitation.

Students will not be permitted to take work outside of their regular classes, without the express permission of the Principal.

Students will not be permitted to take studies out of their regular order, or to drop studies, except by express permission of the Principal.

Students are required to be polite and courteous, and to conduct themselves in a manner becoming to teachers.

Students are required to use all books, apparatus, and other school property with care, and to make good any loss or injury to the same, resulting from their improper use.

On the Campus.

Boisterous conduct, the use of tobacco and alcoholic beverages are forbidden.

In the Study Hall.

Leaving the room, leaving seats, and communicating by whis-