

THE JAZZ BAND

WE pride ourselves on having one of the best college orchestras in this part of the country. All of the members are real students of jazz-harmony, and are artists on their instruments.

"Ced" Austin, on the piano, has no equal at clawing the ivories. As a maltreater of the drums, the medal must be presented to Harold Clark. "Buck" Weaver not only toots a mean saxophone, but punishes the trombone as well. Our smallest and most versatile musical athlete is Bill McNatt. Bill plays a "sax," a cornet and a violin, and is equally good at all three. "It takes a good man to do that."

Last but not least, we mention our brutal banjo beater, "Chicken" Alexander.

The band is always on hand to furnish music at our pep rallies as well as our happy little informals in the "Gym."
