

AGUIRRE, HIGINIO

54-A

A telegram was received here today stating that Mrs. Y. Aguirre (wife of H.) had died at Red Rock of pneumonia. Mrs. Aguirre was the wife of a prominent ranchman there. M. G. Samaniego with several other friends of the deceased left on a freight train for Red Rock to bring the remains here, where funeral services will be held.

The Tucson Citizen, Wednesday, March 20, 1907. p. 4, c. 2

Higinio Aguirre, one of the old pioneers of Pima county passed away this morning at the home of M. G. Samaniego on Ochoa street after an illness of several weeks. His wife died about two weeks ago and just a few weeks previous, Pedro Aguirre a brother passed away. There have been several other deaths in the Aguirre family within a year. Mr. Aguirre was about 70 years old and was one of the pioneers of the Territory. He lived at Red Rock where he owned a large cattle ranch. Funeral services will be held from the Samaniego residence on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Tucson Citizen, Friday, March 29, 1907. p. 4, c. 2.

1907
70
1037