

ALDEN, J. DEAN

J. DEAN ALDEN.

Dean Allen.

1

Weekly Arizona Star, 6/26/79, 1.-3.

..... The Sonora Exploring & Mining Company --- Commenced operations in 1856 . . . . The company had at various times been represented by men whose names are familiar to all old Arizonans, such as General Heintzelman, Dean Allen, Colonel Talcott, Colonel Poston and Gudio Kustel . . . . .

-----

NOTE: I think perhaps that J. Dean Alden of the Constitutional Convention held in Tucson, 1860 is the same man. See pp.

- 1. Delegate from Tubac.
- 14. Moved adoption of resolution of thanks.
- 6. On motion the chair appointed Messrs Alden, Wells and Oury
a committee on Enrolled Bills.
- 7. Capt. J. Dean Alden reports on Enrollment.
- 8. Moves to substitute name of Ewell county for Santa Rita County.
- 23. Signs as Delegate.

-----

Arizona Census, 1864, Tubac, p. 34.

J. Dean Alden, age 42; clerk; born Conn.

1864
42
-----
1122

2

Send H.

Alden, J. Dean

Senator Hayden:

Under the heading "Allen, Dean" I sent you a reference to the Arizona Star of 6/26/1879, 1-4. The article was called "Mining in South-eastern Arizona. While the Star says "Dean Allen" I am sure now that they are referring to J. Dean Alden. E.K.

ALDEN, J. DEAN

Weekly Phoenix Herald, 7/2/91, 2:1,2.

See file of Edward F. Radeleff.