

BAIN, JOHN F.

001

BAIN , JOHN F., born in New York, 1837; enrolled at San Jose, Santa Clara County, California, April 23, and mustered in at Stockton, California, May 2, 1863, to serve 3 years In Captain James Gorman's Company L, 1st California Cavalry; occupation when enlisted, Farmer; promoted Corporal at Camp Union, Sacramento, California, August 15, 1863, and stationed there until January, 1864; promoted Sergeant at Drum Barracks, near San Pedro, California, February 8, 1864, where he was stationed during that month; marched with the company via Fort Yuma and the Gila River Route to Reventon, A.T., where they were stationed until May; listed, Territorial Census, April, 1864, at Reventon, A.T., age 26, single, resident in Arizona 2 months, occupation, Soldier; stationed at Tubac from June until his death of disease at that Post on October 14, 1864.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Orton, R.H. - Records of California Men in the War of the Rebellion, Sacramento, 1890, pp. 157, 872.

The Adjutant General of the Army - Military service records.

BAIN, John F. Private, Company L, 1st California Cavalry

John F. Bain (not found as John F. Baine) was enrolled April 23, 1863 at San Jose, and was mustered into service to date April 23, 1863 at Stockton, California to serve three years.

He was promoted corporal August 15, 1863, and sergeant February 8, 1864 .

He died October 14, 1864 at Tubac, Arizona Territory of disease as a sergeant.

He was born in New York, was 26 years old at date of enlistment, and by occupation a farmer.