

BREHMER, JOHN W.

BREHMER, JOHN W., born in Holmesville, Holmes County, Ohio, 1842; enrolled September 12 at Yreka, Siskiyou County, California, and mustered in at Camp Union, near Sacramento, California, October 2, 1861, to serve 3 years in Captain Joseph Smith's Company A, 5th California Infantry; occupation when enlisted, Farmer; went by sea with the company to southern California in January and marched to Fort Yuma, arriving in February, 1862; left Fort Yuma in March and marched to Tucson via the Gila River Route arriving in July; died of typhoid fever at Tucson, July 29, 1862, aged 20.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Orton, R.H. - Records of California Men in the War of the Rebellion, Sacramento, 1890, pp. 678, 872.

The Adjutant General of the Army - Military service records.

79

BREHMER, John W. Private, Company A, 5th California Inf.

John W. Brehmer was enrolled September 12, 1861 at Yreka, California and mustered into service October 2, 1861 at Sacramento as a private in Captain J. Smith's Company (A) 5th California Infantry to serve three years.

He died July 29, 1862 at Tucson, Arizona Territory of typhoid fever.

He was born in Holmes, Ohio, was 19 years old at date of enlistment and by occupation a farmer.