

COOLEGE, WALTER SCOTT

0001

COOLEGE, WALTER SCOTT, born in Hillsboro, Hillsboro County, New Hampshire, June 8, 1828; son of _____ and _____; married Belle McFarland at _____, Amador County, California, September 8, 1880, children, Belle (Mrs. _____),

Commissioned by the Governor of California as conditional 2d Lieutenant, September 29, 1864, to raise a company; occupation when commissioned, Druggist; mustered in with the Company of 101 Men at Jackson, Amador County, California, as Captain, Company C, 7th California Infantry, October 27, 1864; stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco from November, 1864 to March, 1865; went by sea to San Pedro, California, and marched from there to Fort Mohave, A. T.; in Command at Fort Mohave from April 15, 1865 to February 17, 1866; ordered to the Presidio of San Francisco for final muster out and was honorably discharged with the Company at that Post, April 26, 1866.

Resided in Amador County, California, after the Civil War. Died at _____, _____, November 4, 1908, aged 80. Buried _____ Cemetery, _____, _____.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Records of the Rebellion, Series I, Vol. 50, p. 1274.

Orton, R.H. - Records of California Men in the War of the Rebellion, Sacramento, 1890, pp. 763, 773.

The Adjutant General of the Army - Military Service Records.

U.S. Veterans Administration - Pension Records.