

ROUNTREE, JOHN M.

ROUNTREE, JOHN M _____

Born at _____, Illinois, _____, 18__ (about 1831)

Son of _____ and _____.

Married, Emma H. _____ at _____, on _____, 18__ (about 1861), who was born in Michigan, May 15, 1843, and died in Prescott, July 27, 1871.

Children, Clara (Mrs. _____), Eva (Mrs. _____), and Ada (Mrs. _____).

Came to Arizona from California, 1863; listed, Territorial Census, April, 1864, 3d District (Yavapai County), age 33, born in Illinois, married, family in California, resident in Arizona 4 months, occupation - Trader, property valued at $800; on May 11, 1864, joined with 10 others in locating claims of 300 feet each on the "Bixie", "Lone Cedar" and "Mammoth" quartz lodes all of which were not far from Woolsey's Ranch; with 8 others located on May 21, 1864, 200 feet each on the "Deadwood" lode at "a place 2 miles west of a point where the trail leaves Lynx Creek for Granite Creek".

Was Secretary of the 3d Territorial Council at Prescott, 1866; and District Attorney of Yavapai County, 1868-69; listed, U.S. Census, 1870, at Prescott, age 39, occupation - Lawyer, property valued at $6,000. The Prescott Arizona Miner printed the following item on September 24, 1870:

"The Del Pasco Co. sent out a pack train laden with provisions and tools, on Tuesday last, and Messrs. Rountree, Holstein, and half dozen other gents went along to see the new mines on the Bradshaw mountains."

Died at Nashville, Washington County, Illinois, April - 1873, buried

_____ Cemetery, _____.

ROUNTREE, JOHN M _____

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

- W.P.A. - Journal of the Pioneer and Walker Mining Districts, Phoenix, 1941, pp. 43-45, 47.
- 3d Legislative Assembly, Territory of Arizona - Journals, 1866.
- W.P.A. - Roster of Yavapai County Officials
- Probate Court of Yavapai County - Docket No. 85.
- The Arizona Miner, Prescott, October 9, 1866, 1:2; October 24, 1868, 1:1; January 9, 2:2, January 23, 1869, 1:1 (adv.); September 24, 1870, 3:1; July 29, 1871, 3:2 (Death of wife).

WANTED

Obituaries in Arizona newspapers and additional index references.

ROUNTREE, John M.

A ball took place at Mr. Roundtree's house on the evening of the 28th. The military and civil circles were well represented. Jewell furnished the music with untiring elbow.

----Arizona Miner, February 15, 1865, 3:1

The Prescott House, under the management of Mr. John M. Rountree, is an excellent hotel, and deserving of the patronage of the public.

----Weekly Arizonian (Prescott) August 31, 1867, 3:1