

SMITH, LOT

Born in Williamstown, Oswego County, New York, May 15, 1830.

Son of William O. and Rhoda (Hough) Smith.

Married, (1) Lydia Minerva McBride (1833-1908) at Salt Lake City, June 3, 1851.

Children, Lot S., Robert T., _____

(2) Jane Walker (1833 - _____) at Salt Lake City, February 14, 1852.

Children, _____

(3) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children, _____

(4) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children _____

(5) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children, _____

(6) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children, _____

(7) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children, _____

(8) _____ at _____ on _____, 18__

Children, _____

Enlisted July 16, 1846, age 16, at Council Bluffs as Private, Captain Davis' Company B, Mormon Battalion; marched across southern Arizona and honorably discharged at Los Angeles July 16, 1847; reenlisted in Captain Davis' Veteran Company A at Los Angeles July 20, 1847, and honorably discharged at San Diego, March 14, 1848; returned to Arizona in the spring of 1876 as Captain of a company of 50 men and their families who settled at Sunset on the north side of the Little Colorado; became President of the Little Colorado Stake of Zion January 27, 1878; moved with his to Moencopi, Navapai County, Arizona, 1888.

SMITH, LOT

Killed by Navajo Indians near his home, June 21, 1892, aged 62.

Buried at Tuba City, A.T., but in 1902 his remains were removed and reinterred at Farmington, Davis County, Utah.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Tyler, D. - Concise History of the Mormon Battalion, S.L., 1881, pp. 125, 327, 374.

Brown, J.S. - Life of a Pioneer, S.L., 1900, pp. ⁴⁵⁹460, 461.

Roberts, B.H. - The Mormon Battalion, S.L., 1919, pp. 86-87.

McClintock, J.H. - Mormon Settlement in Arizona, 1921, pp. 21, 25, 27, 37, 138, 140, 143, 159-160, 195, 290, 292.

Jenson, A. - Latter-Day Saint Biographical Encyclopedia, S.L., 1901, pp. 803-806.

The Adjutant General of the Army - Military Service records.

U.S. Veterans Administration - Pension records, Mex. W.C., 13, 008.