

WARD, MILTON

Born at _____ Kentucky, _____ 18 (about 1834)

Son of _____ and _____

Married, Margarita _____ at _____ on _____ 18 _____

Children, George, Joseph, Charles, Amelia (Mrs. _____)

Listed, U. S. Census, 1860, Middle Santa Cruz Settlement (Post Office, Tubac) age 26, born in Kentucky, occupation - Farmer, property valued at $1,800; Sheriff's census of Pima County, 1867 at Tubac with wife and 4 children; his affidavit was included in a memorial to Congress in regard to Apache Indian depredations, dated February 17, 1871:

Milton Ward sworn, and says that he is a farmer and resides near Adamsville, Pima County, Arizona Territory.
That on the 12th day of January 1869, the Apache Indians captured from his residence twenty-three head of cattle worth $815, and on the 22d day of February one yoke of oxen worth $100; and on the 14th day of January 1871, they captured from the same place twelve head of mules and one horse worth $1,560, making a total loss to witness during the past two years, by said Indians of $2,475.

The following notice was printed in the Tucson Arizona Citizen on March 16, 1872:

On or about the 17th of February, we gave a joint note to McFarland & Forbach of Sacaton, A.T., for $200 at five per cent per month interest, payable July 1, 1872. Mr.
McFarland being killed on or about that day and having at the time said note on his person, another note for the same amount, was executed by us on February 27, to Peter Forbach, therefore this is to notify all whom it may concern that the first note above described will not be paid, and should it be found, all parties are cautioned not to negotiate for it.

Samuel B. Wise.
Milton Ward.

Sanford, A.T., March 1, 1872.

He took the school census of the Sanford District in May and was elected School Trustee of that District in November 1874; the following items referring to him were printed in the Florence

Enterprise:

December 2, 1882--Milton Ward has contracted to cut and deliver at the Butte and Florence road, one thousand cords of wood, for the Pinal Consolidated at $2 per cord.

October 12, 1889--Mr. Milton Ward returned home last week from a visit to relatives at Pasadena, California.

November 8, 1890--Milton Ward, while returning home from Florence last Monday, fell from his wagon and its wheels run over his head, breaking his lower jaw and otherwise injuring him. His injuries were attended to by Dr. Adler and Mr. Ward was able to get to town Tuesday to vote.

Died at _____ on _____ 18____

Buried _____ Cemetery _____

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

The Arizona Citizen, Tucson, March 2, 2:2; March 16, 1872, 2:3;
May 16, 3:3; November 11, 1874, 4:2;
December 7, 1877, 3:2

The Arizona Enterprise, Florence, December 2, 1882, 3:2;
October 12, 1889, 3:1; November 11, 1890, 3:1, March 10, 1892, 1:9