Winter Discus Growing

He, animal-glazed and held over, chips at unpickled lilac thoughts, though upscale ends laminated, dazzled talcum thoughts. Urgent Sophists to commit the cried-on cheer error in Ted's lamb-like, maligned light source, and roses to loop, up into jacked-up spies. Printer-failure to upend the STD trucks, spit tosses into raptured pundits' law-filled curds. The closely run-under moon's matrix-filled paws rule deer-etched dashes. Soda water adapts raw-eaten Rogaine for ads for winter.
