ADDENDUM NUMBER FOUR

RE: RFP 171801 Renewable Energy Purchase

Total pages in this addendum: Two (2)

1. Addendum Two is hereby voided in its entirety.

2. The following is hereby incorporated into Section V – Specifications/Scope of Work. The paragraph is inserted on page 14 below paragraph (b) and above the last paragraph of that portion of the section:

   Arizona State University encourages proposers to creatively assess other areas that may provide increased partnership between the University and any awardees. Opportunities may include research projects, development of new learning or research institutions, naming rights, shared asset utilization, or any other programs that add additional value to the partnership. Proposers should include ideas and recommendations for these value added areas in the proposal with a description of the vision of the program and the benefits expected to be gained by both parties.

3. Section VIII – Evaluation Criteria, Phase 2 – Comprehensive Evaluation criteria is hereby revised to the following criteria:

   - Economic Impact to ASU refers to the overall positive or negative impact to ASU directly or indirectly resulting from the project, including, but not limited to financial risk and the magnitude and timing of anticipated financial costs and returns to ASU. ASU has a strong preference not to utilize its capital or debt capacity to finance the project.

   - Project Characteristics includes whether the project brings additional new renewable energy capacity; the economic, environmental and social effects (“Effects”) the project will have on Arizona; the Effects the project will have on the locale in and around the project site; the potential educational and research benefits to ASU; grid impacts; the potential marketing/public relations impacts; and innovativeness.

- Feasibility and Likelihood of Timely Execution and Delivery refers to the likelihood that the Proposal will achieve commercial operation or otherwise begin delivering ASU renewable power on a timely schedule and that the proposer will be able to honor the obligations of the given transaction.

- Sustainability Requirements. Responses to Supplier Sustainability Questionnaire (see Section XIII - Mandatory Certifications).

- Standard Terms and Conditions. Refers to Proposer’s willingness to accept ASU’s Terms and Conditions specified in Section XII and justification for non-agreement and impact to ASU due to non-agreement.

- The likely value ASU would receive from value added services or opportunities described in the Value Added section contained in Tab 2.1 of Proposers submittal

4. Section X – Form of Proposal/Special Instructions, Content of Submittal, 3. Response to Section V Specifications/Scope of Work paragraph (b). On page 23, add the following text above paragraph (c):

   Tab 2.1 – Value Added. To the extent that the Proposer is proposing any value added related information in accordance with this Addendum Number Four, paragraph 2, please provide any such information here.”

All other specifications, and terms and conditions of the solicitation shall remain unchanged.
